4 STRATEGIC FOUNDATIONS

Y

SUSTAINABILITY

Awareness of all being pieces of the same puzzle we call planet Earth.

Regenerating habits, rearranging decisions, reclaiming solutions, resizing ambitions, recycling opinions or readjusting the prisms of efficiency and sustainability.

ART

Framing the world with the eyes of an artist, art will always be present, whether by liberal representation of art or, symbolically, in everything we do. We perceive triviality through different eyes.

LOCAL

Space inspired by the places and the people. We're not only in the community. We buy, add value, participate, contribute, develop, are part of, and integrate our guest.

HOSPITALITY

Hospitality is our thing, a Portuguese thing.

Extraordinary human interaction is exclusive to The Editory. No other team will be capable of making you feel this special.

Sow the Future

BY THE EDITORY

The programme Seeds is based on gestures, actions and dynamics for a better and more responsible future.

It resulted from the need to highlight the sustainability practices adopted by hotels.

CERTIFICATIONS

BEST PRACTICES

REPORTS

BROAD AREAS FOR ACTION

SOWING THE FUTURE

CO2 & CLIMATE CHANGE

Corporate commitment to limit temperature rise to 2°C above pre-industrial times.

PLASTIC

Development of a response adapted to the context and geographies of each of the businesses, based on the same set of premises, integrated in a Charter of Principles for Plastics.

NATURE & BIODIVERSITY

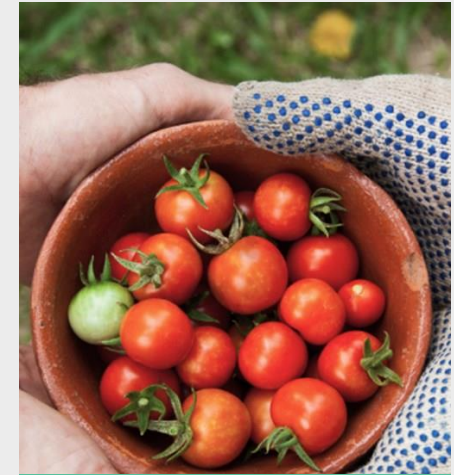

Structuring of a transversal policy for the Conservation of a set of objectives and goals to be achieved by companies in favor of nature.

INEQUALITIES & INCLUSIVE DEVELOPMENT

Contribution to minimizing inequalities and promoting a more just, equitable and inclusive society.

SUPPORTING THE COMMUNITY

Increased resilience and autonomy of the communities where we are present, contributing to the eradication of poverty in its different forms.

The Editorial Ocean Way is walking along the edge of the Atlantic, where the sky meets freedom.

The Editorial Ocean Way is not about arriving, but about flowing — with the breeze, with time, with thought.

The clouds drift slowly, pretending not to exist. The light sculpts reflections that vanish like fleeting memories.

The Editorial Ocean Way is about staying without counting the hours, about leaving with the scent of the sea on your skin.

It's where stories find you, whispered by waves or folded into the breeze.

Where the ocean doesn't rush — and neither do you.
